

Short Script for Children

Punch: Here is our show.

Judy: It's called the Three Wishes

Ludwig: Hello, My name is Ludwig.

Hedwig: My name is Hedwig. It's your turn to cook dinner today, Ludwig.

Ludwig: It's your turn to chop wood.

Hedwig: This nice big tree will make lots of wood.

Fairy: No, no. Don't chop it down please.

Hedwig: Okay, I won't chop it down.

Fairy: Oh thank you. Now I will give three wishes to you and your husband.

Hedwig: Thank you. Now I will find another tree to chop down.

Hedwig: I am so tired from chopping down little trees. I will go home now.

Hedwig: I am home and hungry. Is dinner ready yet?

Ludwig: Not yet. Sit down and rest while I go get dinner.

Hedwig: I am so hungry. I wish I had a sausage.

Ludwig: Hedwig, where did these sausages come from?

Hedwig: A fairy gave us three wishes because I did not chop her tree down.

Ludwig: Did you waste a wish on sausages when we could have had anything? You, dummy. I wish those sausages were on your nose.

Hedwig: Oh no, I have sausages on my nose. Ludwig, see what you have done.

Ludwig: I'm sorry Hedwig.

Hedwig: Don't just stand there being sorry, Ludwig. Get them off my nose.

Ludwig: I can't pull them off or chop them. They are too hard.

Hedwig: Then let's wish them off.

Ludwig: But Hedwig that is our last wish.

Hedwig: But I'm not walking around with sausages on my nose.

Ludwig: Okay, Hedwig. We can wish them off.

Hedwig: Oh, look, Ludwig. Now they are off my nose.

Ludwig: Well, Hedwig, I am happy that you are happy. But we didn't get anything for our wishes.

Hedwig: Yes we did Ludwig. We have some nice sausages to eat. Now that they are off my nose they are tender and delicious.

Ludwig: Great, Hedwig. Let's go eat.

Punch: That's the end of the show.

Judy: You can clap now.
